Dedication

The moment of our departure
now at hand,
we are saddened
in leaving the circle of one Holy Family.
With a keener awareness, however,
we are conscious of our membership
in that mystical,
universal Holy Family;
to whom we, the class of 1950,
dedicate this Vista.

Vocation

Life . . . a three dimensional field.
The single line—for many, a barren abstraction.
A neutral grey.

The curve,
Partially satisfying, incomplete.
. . . Necessary.
A fleck of color though subdued.
Yet
"After twelve summers dies the swan."

The circle,
Stormy petrel of the ultimate end.
The circle,
Rotundity . . . development of the interior life.
A brilliant azarine—perfection.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our beloved companion and classmate, Jackie Gaglia, who lost his life September 1, 1947 in an automobile accident. He will always be remembered by the seniors of 1950.

Not my will, but Thine

He journeyed far from His Father's House,
And entered the dark world of human existence,

The golden spirit and life of the universe
Born of earth's shadowed heritage.

And He served them,
And was subject to them.

For three blazing high noons
The seed was sown.

In three supreme hours,
The Will was fulfilled.

And the Place of the Skull was engraved
On the heart of the world.

Enlightenment

A light . . .
Amid the brooding darkness,
A spark . . .
Long awaited by the world,
Yet never fully attained,
A true radiance . . .
Illuminating the labyrinths of our times,

Repulsing, combating, leading,
As that written by a pen
Is etched with an ax.
This we ask; this possessed,
All will follow.
From Charon's blasted shores
To Augustine's crystal chalice.

ADVANCED LATIN

Martin McNulty explains the syllabication and accent of a passage from Cicero to Rosemary Karns, Mary Sardick, and Don Bolke.

SPEECH

MUSIC APPRECIATION

Music hath charm! Music lovers listen appreciatively as Mr. Tweedy plays a difficult passage from his favorite composer on his cello.

CHEMISTRY

Future chemists? of America! Donna Baker takes notes as Joe Sullivan and Pat Bruce complete an experiment.

TYPING

Charlotte Longo, second year typist, points out an error to Joanne Keough, first year typist, as Jeanette Tate arranges the bulletin board with artyping.

Helen Schenfeld and Mary Hill look for "coaching from the audience" while Peggy Kollander thumbs rapidly through her book in search of the answer to the question asked by Elaine Stuska.

ENGLISH IV

CIVICS

During civics class, Terry Goodwin explains why state court judges should be appointed by the governor, to avid "civic lovers" Don Fox, Harry Lally, Ronnie Garramone, and John Gassen.

SPANISH I

"This is fer real!" El Camino Real becomes a reality for Spanish 1 students.

GEOMETRY

Dale Murphy proves DE∥AB and DE=½ AB, to Bob Goodwin, Donna Graebing, and Madonna Melroy, as Marguerite Quintana writes the proof with its statements and reasons.

JOURNALISM

Marguerite Kirk points out to Jerry Starkey a new idea for a feature while other journalism students, Jim Pade, Ervin Barlock, Dick Williams, Pat Lucy, and Caroline Feierstein study the Lamp Post style sheet, examine previous files, and look over the layout of Today.

SENIOR

Jim Weigel, Ronnie Capra, and Dave Sloan, "stop, look, and listen," as Father Jones explains the uses of the Holy Oils. The remainder of the class looks on attentively.

RELIGION

The senior girls, intoning the first Christmas novena at Holy Family, pause momentarily as the photographer snaps their picture.

Not as sounding brass

And Truth, His virtues,
Forever have their champions.

And like the faithful servants,
We bury not our talents;
On the Rialto, before hostile eyes,
Confound other Pharisees.

The graduation choir, composed of freshmen, sophomores and juniors, sings "Let Us Praise God" and the "Beatitudes," at the joint commencement exercises held at City Auditorium.

CHORAL CLUB

The boys' vested choir chants "The Missa Stella Matutina" by Carnevali at Easter morning Mass. First row, left to right, D. Aichele, F. Quintana, R. Brisnehan, E. Daley, J. Heiderstadt; second row, B. Garramone, B. McClimans, J. Tancredo, B. Moriarity, G. Zoellner, M. McNulty; third row, J. Hammond, J. Hamill, R. Garramone, J. Sullivan, R. Kennedy; fourth row, R. Officers of the Library Club, left to right, Nancy Cress, secretary; Marjorie Gallagher, vice president; Mary Ann Bohan, president, and Madonna Melroy, treasurer, systematically check in books recently returned to the library.

LIBRARY CLUB

Holy Family's dependable librarians look over new books and magazines. Standing, left to right, M. Bohan, P. Cullen, M. Gallagher, P. Anderson, R. Malone, C. Stralesky, and S. Gassen. Seated, left to right, R. Carney E. Grace, M. Melroy, C. Trainor, J. Williams, J. Callahan, N. Cress, and D. McCarthy

Boys' and girls' sodality officers, R. Berninzoni, D. Golesh, K. Malone, M. Sardick, I. Hanley, J. Weigel, C. Longo, and P. Kennedy, meet in the upstairs hall before the new statue of Our Lady, bought by the students' sacrifice money.

SODALITIES

Burning candles and fragrant flowers enhance the atmosphere, as Pat Bruce and Pat Griffith do spiritual reading for Lent.

Rae Mona Barnhart and Kay Malone offer their assistance to a Little Sister of the Sick Poor, at Mullen Home. Several times a week the girls go to Mullen to help the sisters in their care of the poor.

N. F. L.

With a background of music and flowers, Walter Pesci and Dick Aichele seem to have found a solution to their latest debate proposition.

Jean Bucher and Earl Daley laugh over a new angle of an old stage story.

KNIGHTS OF THE KING

Members of the Knights of the King, who have served faithfully, meet in front of the church.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Members of the student council, which is comprized of the presidents and vice presidents of the classes and clubs and the room representatives, give President Martin McNulty their full attention as he proposes a new resolution for the betterment of the school.

Marguerite Kirk, Dorothy Verdieck, John Heiderstadt, and Dan Hallinan work diligently to meet their yearbook deadline.

PRESS CLUB

The strains of Pomp and Circumstance, lighted tapers, and formal attire blend themselves beautifully to the Quill and Scroll exercises in which new members were received. Standing, left to right, M. McNulty, C. Feierstein, S. FitzPatrick, E. Barlock, and M. Sardick, members of the Lamp Post staff.

Senior members of the Lamp Post staff strive to complete the last issue of the paper to be published by them. Left to right: M. Sardick, J. Starkey, J. Conway, H. Lally, C. Feierstein, S. FitzPatrick, and M. McNulty

John Hammond and John Heiderstadt delve into some of the secrets of this changing world in a chemistry experiment.

With eyes upon the final goal

The zenith passed,
He moved from the mountain peaks
To the valley floors.

Before the pawns of Rome,
No favors . . . no compromises.
"Thou sayest it."
He spoke no malediction.
"Forgive them."

Descending,
He comforted, though moving
Towards the eternal sacrifice.

PEP CLUB

Directing the activities of the Pep Club were, top to bottom: Agnes Mullane, president; Rita Dastole, treasurer; Helen Schenfeld, secretary; Elaine Satterwhite, vice president, dressed in their purple and gold suits, await the arrival of their float.

Sparkplugs of the grandstand! These Holy Family students, namely, (upper picture) Janice Plym, Carol Ploussard, Jane Peters, Dolores Capra, (lower picture) Jean Persichitte, Marlene Clemes, and Joan Persichitte, lead the cheers of the enthusiastic crowds during the sport season of the Tigers.

Tiger cheer-leaders this year were attired in purple and gold satin jackets and purple and gold culottes.

BOXING 1950

HOME

Joann Coursey receives Father Flynn's sincere congratulations on being crowned queen at the 15th annual homecoming, as Gary Koeber plays peek-a-boo.

Seated on her royal float, Joann Coursey and her attendants, Helen Schenfeld, Rita Dastole, and Elaine Satterwhite with pages and sleepy little crown-bearer arrive at Bears Stadium.

COMING

Junior Pep Club members form H.T.F., symbolizing Holy Family Tigers, as sophomore and freshman girls step into the form of V for victory, while the cheer-leaders arouse enthusiasm by a rollicking cheer!

The royal queen and her attendants ride on their float of white garlands to Bears Stadium where her highness was crowned queen by Rev. Leo M. Flynn.

Enter the royal court! Junior girls raise shakers high as the royal court arrives.

Bengal guards—JIM WEIGELAND, FRANK QUINTANA

Pass interception—
JOHN HEIDERSTADT

Brilliant passer—
JERRY STARKEY

Corner:
Top notch punter—
JACK ISENHART

The referee blows his whistle as the Tigers down a Cathedral Bluejay.

Clever runner—
RAY BRISNEHAN

FOOT-

Coach JOE FANNING and BILL BLALACK are engrossed in the latest report of the Bengals.

W. Grisdale, J. Bohan, and Di-Paolo show signs of confidence before tangling with their opponents.

End of flight—into the hands of BERNIE MCGANN.

Three stalwart linesmen, DAVE SLOAN, RALPH BERNINZONI, and BOB THYFAULT.

Tiger hurler—
JOE BURNS

A look of "did we make it" flashes across the face of JACK ISENHART as a Tiger team-mate is downed on the goal.

Fleet Footed—
DICK GOLISH

BALL

Leaving the locker room before the big game, J. HABERER, D. HALLINAN, and J. CONWAY, look hopefully toward a victory.

Ever-ready managers—
